

130A Church St, Penola

Penola's Hidden Gem

Gorgeous cottage oozing character

Watch a million stars from your own backyard, with a local red in your hand.

This original 1867 Penola cottage and former wine shop has been smartly transformed into a contemporary country pad incorporating stunning rustic features and multiple living spaces, which make it the perfect entertainer.

Nestled in an established private garden, the Coonawarra Cellar doors begin a short stroll away.

Situated on a large 741m2 allotment, this home would be perfect as holiday accommodation or a permanent residence – it is ready to go!

The home offers an open plan living, dining and kitchen area with stainless steel bench tops and original rough-hewn timber feature wall. A large bathroom offers rustic stone and iron features walls with shower over bath. The three bedrooms have all been recently carpeted and a cosy office/second living area can also be found at the front of the house. The property also boasts recently updated plumbing and electrical work as well as reverse cycle heating/cooling.
